Bill No. IV of 1963

THE INDIAN PENAL CODE (AMENDMENT) BILL, 1963
(As Introduced in the Rajya Sabha)

BILL

further to amend the Indian Penal Code.

BE it enacted by Parliament in the Fourteenth Year of the Republic of India as follows:

1. Short title.—This Act may be called the Indian Penal Code (Amendment) Act, 1963.

2. Insertion of new section 293A.—After section 293 of the Indian Penal Code (Act 45 of 1860) the following section shall be inserted, namely:—

"293A. Nothing contained in section 292 or section 293 shall apply to any book, pamphlet, writing, drawing, painting, representation or figure meant for public good or for bona fide purposes of science, literature, art or any other branch of learning:

Provided that in the event of any dispute arising as to the nature of the publication, the opinion of experts on the subject may be admitted as evidence."

STATEMENT OF OBJECTS AND REASONS

Under the present sections 292 and 293 of the Indian Penal Code, there is a danger of publications meant for public good or for bona fide purposes of science, literature, art or any other branch of learning being declared as obscene literature as there is no specific provision in the Act for exempting them from the operation of those sections. This Bill seeks to remove that lacuna so as to bring the law into conformity with modern practice in other civilised countries.

DIWAN CHAMAN LAI.

JOSEPH DINA NATH, Under Secretary (Judicial).
